

Phase 1A will focus on high-risk workers in healthcare or patient care settings as well as residents of long-term care facilities

Hospitals

Including non-medical staff who may have direct patient contact (e.g., food services, security, IT, environmental services)

Home health

Including home support services, direct service providers, and personal attendant service staff

Public health personnel

Long-term care facilities

Including skilled nursing and assisted living facilities, both staff and residents

EMS and medical transport

Outpatient facilities

Including primary care providers, urgent care providers, dialysis providers, pediatricians, respiratory therapists, speech & language pathologists, occupational therapists, physical therapists, podiatrists, mental and behavioral health facility personnel, hospice providers, dentists, chiropractors, optometrists

Pharmacies